CONTENTS

Brij Mohan, the person
Frank B. Raymond 89

Brij Mohan by himself
Priscilla D. Allen 93

Brij Mohan: the evolution of a social scientist
S. Zafar Hasan 99

In scientia veritas et spero
Christian Aspalter 107

Romanticism, community and social services
William M. Epstein 117

From tribal consciousness and subjective rationality toward global consciousness and objective rationality
David G. Gil 137

Some philosophical influences on the thought of Brij Mohan
Thomas D. Watts 145

The phenomenology of development
Robert Kowalski 153

International social development and counter-development
Mark Lusk 165

Comparative social welfare: the existential humanist perspective and challenge
John Dixon 177

Brij Mohan’s social policy analysis: a view from Western Europe
Nick Johns and Mark Hyde 189

Social justice as a unifying theme in social work education: principles to realize the promise of a new pedagogical model
David R. Hodge 201

Water crisis
Sharad K. Jain and Vijay P. Singh 215

Impact of global warming and climate change on social development
Ashok K. Mishra, Vijay P. Singh and Sharad K. Jain 239

Social justice: a conservative perspective
Bruce A. Thyer 261

Brij Mohan: person, pioneer, and professor
Kyle McNease 275

For the record: 10 questions for Brij Mohan
Kirpal S. Soodan and Usha R. Srivastava 281